Autumn Sermon Series: Today we continue our morning sermon series on the well-known story of Noah which we have called – It's Going to Rain. We will be looking at Genesis 6-9 over the next few weeks where we will be faced with the depths of sin and the heights of God's grace.

Tarbat Property: There will be a congregational meeting this Wednesday 9th October to seek the permission of the congregation to sell the assets at Portmahomack and Inver to the Free Church Continuing. The meeting will be in Tain at 7:30pm. We will not have the usual congregational prayer meeting the following week.

Infant Baptism: Next Sunday in Tain we have the baptism of Iain and Laura Garvie's twins, Ruaridh and Ellis. This will be followed by lunch in the hall.

Discussion Forum: On the first Wednesday of the month starting in November, we will have questions and discussion in place of the usual midweek meeting. This will take place in both church halls at 7:30pm. There will be some suggested discussion points issued on the previous Sunday but other relevant questions can also be raised. We will break into two or three table groups for discussion and following that there will be a time of open prayer where both men and women can pray if they wish.

Christmas Unwrapped: We will be in Knockbreck Primary School on 5th and 6th Dec. We need volunteers to be able to do this. Please speak to Mairi MacAulay or Emma Mackenzie if you can help in the school or providing lunch on these days.

Steadfast Global: Pray generally for:

The church in nations where persecution is prevalent.

The Body of Christ, remembering that together we are one

The leadership in those lands (1 Tim. 2:1-4).

Those who persecute God's people (Matt. 5:44).

I was glad when they said to me, "Let us go to the house of the LORD." Psalm 122:1
