Baptism: The baptism of Andrew and Eilidh's son, Caleb, will take place in Hilton Church this morning.

Discussion Forum: On Wednesday evening we will have our first discussion forum and time of open prayer. Three questions to begin discussions are:

1. Why did God need to flood the earth?
2. Why did God leave Noah so long on the ark?
3. How does God lead us now?

People may also ask their own questions about Noah and the Flood.

Food Bank: There will be a foodbank collection in the Tain end of the congregation for the month of November. There are leaflets at the door.

Christmas Unwrapped: We will be in Knockbreck Primary School on 5th and 6th Dec. We need volunteers to be able to do this. Please speak to Mairi MacAulay or Emma Mackenzie if you can help in the school or providing lunch on these days.

Steadfast Global: CENTRAL ASIA: Please add 'Feruza' (not her real name) to your prayer lists, asking for salvation to come to her home (Lk.19:9). She is being held captive by her Muslim parents because she refuses to renounce her Christian faith. Her witness is inspiring.

Deacon's Email: The Deacons now have their own email address. This is for anyone to use if you want to ask the deacons a question or discuss a subject at their meetings – deacons@tainandfearnfreechurch.co.uk

If you would like a visit, speak to one of the elders or either minister:
