Committed to Christ / Committed to Church / Committed to Community

WFM: The Women for Mission group will meet on Tuesday, at 10:30am at Tain Free Church Hall. This month's speaker is Anne Fraser (nee Graham) who will speak about the work of WFM and the projects. Tea and coffee will be served and all ladies are warmly invited.

Congregational Meeting: The Kirk-Session & Deacons' Court agreed to seek permission from the General Assembly to get another assistant minister. The congregation must be consulted. The Session has appointed a congregational meeting this Wednesday in Hilton at 7:30pm to seek the support of the congregation to proceed with this application.

Women's Bible Study: Please note that the morning & evening groups are both on Thursday this week to avoid a clash with the WFM. The groups meet on Thursday at 11am and 7:30pm at the Old School House. This week's handout is at the door in Tain, for those who attend.

Fearn Communion: This will be a joint evening communion next Sunday, 23rd March. Tain will close that evening. Anyone wishing to profess their faith should speak to the minister or elders before then.

Induction Transport: If you would make use of a minibus or a lift to Andrew's induction in Dunfermline on Sat 5th April, please speak to Will Ross in Hilton or Duncan MacDonald in Tain or email - deacons@tainandfearnfreechurch.co.uk

Steadfast Global: Pray for Syria amid serious unrest there. The majority of Christians have left the country but pray for those left. Give thanks for answered prayer that Saba, the 12 year old Christian girl abducted by a Muslim neighbour in Pakistan, has been rescued and returned home.

What shall I render to the Lord for all his gifts to me? Ps.116:12
