

Cookie Policy

This Cookie Policy explains how Tain and Fearn Free Church ("we," "us," "our") uses cookies and similar technologies on our website, <https://tainandfearnfreechurch.co.uk/>.

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit websites. They help the website remember your preferences, actions, and enhance your browsing experience.

Types of Cookies We Use:

1. Essential Cookies:

These cookies are necessary for the website to function properly, allowing you to navigate the website and use its essential features.

2. Performance Cookies:

These cookies collect information about how visitors use our website, such as the pages visited most often, and if users experience errors. This data helps us improve website functionality.

3. Functionality Cookies:

These cookies remember your preferences and choices (such as language or region settings) to provide personalized functionality.

4. Third-party Cookies:

Our website may include third-party services (such as Google Analytics or embedded video content) which may place their own cookies.

How We Use Cookies:

We use cookies to:

- Ensure the proper functioning of our website.
- Enhance website performance and user experience.
- Understand visitor behaviour to continually improve our content and website functionality.
- Remember user preferences to personalise future visits.

Managing Cookies:

You have the right to accept or refuse cookies. Most browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can modify your browser settings to decline cookies if you prefer. Note that declining cookies may affect the functionality of our website.

- Browser Settings: You can manage cookies through your browser settings. See your browser's help section for more information.
- Opt-out of Third-party Cookies: You can opt out of certain third-party cookies, such as Google Analytics, by visiting their opt-out pages.

Updates to this Cookie Policy:

We may update our Cookie Policy periodically. Any changes will be posted on this page, and we encourage you to review this policy regularly.
